Tie breaker procedure

- Win - Loss record (pool play)
- Head-to-head result between tied teams
- Match differential between tied teams (matches won, subtract matches lost for ranking score)
- Set differential between tied teams (sets won, subtract sets lost for ranking score)
- Point differential in games between tied teams (points won, subtract points lost for ranking score)
- Match differential in all games
- Set differential in all games
- Point differential in all games
- Coin Toss

If at any point during the application of the tiebreakers to a multiple team / player tie, if multiple teams / players are separated down to a two team tie, then the head-to-head result will be used to separate these two teams / players.

In the third game, players change ends when the leading score reaches 11 points.Coaches may talk to their players after games but not duringAn injured player may receive 5 minutes of treatment if required. After this time the match is forfeit.If players are injured and need to be replaced, the replacement can only come from the Mixed Doubles #2. The match is recorded as legitimate score and not a forfeit. The replaced player is out for the rest of the day.Players who Forfeit through injury: If a player forfeits during a match, the scores will be recorded at the point of that forfeit. E.g. Injured Player “A” is winning 5-2 in the 1st set at the point of forfeit. Non-injured Player “B” wins the game 5-21, 0-21 and the match 0-2.No official umpires or scorers will be used. Players will be responsible for their own line calls and scoring. If a major dispute occurs during a match, which cannot be resolved by the players on-court, then the match can be halted and the players can bring the matter to the attention of their coaches, and then to the tournament referee; in extreme conditions an official or impartial coach can be assigned to referee a match—at the discretion of the tournament official/referee. | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |
